

MSL Self-Assessment:

1. Do you have a doctorate level scientific or clinical healthcare advanced degree such as PharmD, PhD, MD, PA, NP or MSN?
2. Do you have clinical patient care experience such as Clinical Pharmacy or Clinical Practice?
3. If you are a clinician or a researcher are you highly specialized in a disease state or therapeutic category?
4. Does your research experience include Clinical Research?
5. Are you experienced in presenting scientific and clinical data to both professional and lay audiences outside of your Company?
6. Have you had experience identifying, developing and maintaining professional relationships with other healthcare experts for educational or research purposes outside of your Company?
7. Are you able to leverage those relationships for collaboration purposes?
8. Are you experienced in navigating through the hospital system and/or academic institution environment? (departments, labs, clinics, etc.)
9. Do you have in-house pharmaceutical industry experience such as Medical Information, Medical Affairs, Drug Safety & Pharmacovigilance or Clinical Research?
10. Are you literate in the policies and procedures in accordance with FDA regulations such as PhRMA Code, OIG, and Sunshine Act?
11. Have you had experience developing core medical affairs or medical marketing materials such as slide decks, standard response letters, clinical training resources or publication planning?
12. Have you worked in a situation requiring self-motivation and resourcefulness without the direct supervision of a manager or director?
13. Are you literate in the role of the Medical Science Liaison (Field-based Medical Affairs) and what the day to day activities entail?